What is CSI+?

CSI+ is the official membership platform of the cruise interiors community. Membership is for forward-thinking professionals working within the cruise interiors sector.

CSI+ membership gives VIPs the power to search and source suppliers, share their expertise in the sector, keep up-to-date with the latest trends and grow their professional network.

For suppliers, a company-wide CSI+ membership gives you the opportunity to establish a network, build valuable relationships with your peers, increase your brand awareness with our promotion support, discover opportunities for collaboration, get the latest insights and connect with buyers.

“CSI+ has done a great job of making a community feel for all its members. Not knowing a lot of people in the industry when we first joined, the constant content, introductions and CSI online networking hours helped us to start really getting to know not only some great clients but also some fantastic networking contacts from other suppliers.”

Steven Davies | UK Sales Manager | Waterbury Bathrooms

What do our members think?

“It’s a great place to both meet new people and companies and get introduced to new technology and products as they come to market. It provides an informal place for me to stay connected with current suppliers and manufacturers. It’s a useful forum to discuss the supply chain with other owners. It’s a place for us to share challenges we face and what we need to overcome them.”

Matt Easton
Hotel Refurbishment Manager, Marella Cruises

“CSI+ always surprises with new opportunities that can be so important for daily work. Since the website is constantly being expanded and updated, I check it out at least every two weeks - even if I don’t have a specific need. That way you always get to know new, innovative ideas that allow you to leave the beaten track. My personal favourite events are the ship tours that take place again and again. What a great opportunity to combine the pleasant with the useful. And of course, the always-helpful people are there, without whom this network would be unthinkable. I am proud and grateful to be part of this network.”

Ingo Gersema
Meyer Werft GmbH

“Being part of the CSI+ network has provided several opportunities to network and engage with new suppliers and companies across the industry. Learning and sharing ideas of best practice, discussing shared challenges and barriers, and looking at innovative solutions has been a hugely rewarding opportunity particularly when focusing on the sustainability components. I continue to be inspired by the wider network and look forward to being involved with future events.”

Olivia Wells
Sustainability Manager, TUI Group

“CSI+ works hard to connect people in the cruise industry, helps make business connections and forge strong business relationships. They also help to educate people who are interested in being a part of the cruise industry.”

Lisa Darroh-Pouls
Interior Designer and Architecture, Pouls Hospitality Design
